Edition 13

23rd April 2021

Many of us would really love a holiday (including me!), but can I stress the importance of not taking holidays in term time?

The children have missed a massive part of being in school over the past year and it is our intention to enable the children to catch up. To this end, we have robust programmes in place to facilitate this progress.

There are 13 weeks in the school year in which to book holidays. Taking holidays in term time not only detracts from learning, but it results in a fine from NYCC. Part of an Ofsted judgement is attendance. We are very proud of our current amazing attendance. Keep it up!
