Edition 20

4th March 2022

This week, the news from Ukraine has filled many with dread and despair. TV bulletins make very difficult viewing as young families are divided, with mothers and children fleeing for their safety.

I have heard of many local acts of kindness as the UK endeavours to help those most in need. Here, at Mill Hill, once again our community is stepping up to aid those who need support. It is a privilege to work within such a caring community.

There are tasty treats being sold to staff and a cake sale for our children.

I know that you will, in your usual generous manner, support this most worthy of causes.

Thank you.

Recommended Reads from Reading for Pleasure

Each week a reader will review a book that they have particularly enjoyed...

Our book reviewer this week is from Reception. She is enjoying 'Marvellous Machines' by Jane Wilsher & Andres Lozano. 'I like this book because it has a magnifying glass. You can find parts of the machines in the book, but they only show up with the red magnifying glass. It is good fun.'
