7th October 2022

It has been a very positive week at Mill Hill. How lovely to see so many parents and carers back in school for Consultation Evenings. It struck me that, for the parents of many of our children in Key Stage 1, this is the first opportunity they have had to meet teachers face to face and see work. I have had such encouraging feedback as parents have passed through the entrance on their way home and have stopped for a chat! Teachers are always the first port of call for any issues you may need resolving.
