Christmas lunch is always a very busy day for our brilliant team in the kitchen. They go above and beyond to prepare the most scrumptious meal for all the children and staff. The number of children taking a school meal massively increases on that day so we need to have accurate numbers as there is no alternative menu. For this reason, we ask children to order in advance.

We like to make the day special by treating the children to an ice cream and, of course, we have crackers. What would lunch be without a party hat or a rubbishy joke?
