Edition 22

18th March 2022

It was a real pleasure to take our costume prize winners, from World Book Day, to Waterstones to choose a book. A wide and diverse range of reading material was chosen...some of the children chose books to have read to them, whilst others chose books to read themselves. Some chose fiction, some factual books. It is fascinating to see children's differing interests reflected in their choice of books.

Reading is so valuable, we work hard to create a culture of reading amongst both the adults and children in school. Reading is a vital life skill, the key to success. Consequently, we are heavily investing in new books. Share one of our new books with your child.

Recommended Reads from Reading for Pleasure

Each week a reader will review a book that they have particularly enjoyed....

'I am reading 'Bunny vs Monkey' by Jamie Smart. I love it because it is action filled and funny. It's a bright, colourful comic strip book where the characters make the most amazing machines. Anyone who likes comic strips would absolutely love this book'
