9th December

We have a very exciting week planned next week in our run up to the Christmas holiday, starting with the Nativity on Tuesday. All parents in KS1 should now have received their allocation of tickets. Siblings will be able to enjoy the dress rehearsal, in school, on Monday. In addition, on Tuesday the raffle draw will take place! There are twenty fabulous prizes up for grabs thanks to donations from parents and staff. Everyone has been admiring the prizes which are on display in the entrance. On Wednesday Mr Bibby and Mrs Williams will be dishing up their usual delicious festive feast. There will be Christmas crackers to make the meal go with a bang!

Thursday brings a real treat, a travelling company of actors will bring Aladdin live on stage. This promises to be fabulous fun. I think we will all be exhausted by Friday when we hand the children over!

Gastric Illness Guidelines

If your child has sickness, or diarrhoea, they need to be clear for 48 hours following the last episode before returning to school. Please be vigilant around hand washing.

Christmas Jumpers

If you have one, we look forward to seeing Christmas jumpers on Wednesday 14th December! If not, children can come in non uniform.

Please make sure children have adequate clothing for outdoors in the cold weather. We like everyone to be out in the fresh air at lunch and break times.

Number of Children with 100% Attendance

45

When attendance falls below 90%, the figure is regarded by the Government as being that of a persistent absentee. At this level, the school is obliged to take monitoring action.

REMINDER!

All children who have not ordered a Christmas Dinner for Wednesday will need to bring a Packed Lunch from home.

CHRISTMAS HAMPER RAFFLE

Have you got your raffle tickets yet?
The draw takes place on Tuesday 13th December.

There are no certificates this week as we have no assembly. It is the Craft Display.
