Edition 23

17th March 2023

We will always do our very best to keep school open, as we realise that many of our parents work and childcare is an issue.

During the snow, on Friday, I was so pleased that we managed to open and that so many children made the effort to attend (and had great fun in the snow into the bargain!). Well done to all those who came in to engage in their learning.

Similarly, on strike days we will always endeavour to open. We want the children to understand how important every day is on their learning journey.

Keep it up everyone!
