

It has been lovely to see some parents (all mums!) in school this week enjoying the Adult Learning Murder Mystery event. This is completely free and provides an opportunity for parents and carers to enjoy some relaxed social time together with a cup of tea or coffee. Why not consider the next event which is five weeks of cookery? Everyone will be warmly welcomed ... you may even find some new recipes to try out at home! We would love to see some dads joining us too. This starts on Tuesday 4th June and culminates in a free gift!
